

TRENDS IN BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES
AT THE TURN OF THE MILLENIUM

Symposium Proceeding Celebrating 80 years of Medical Education in Debrecen
(1918-1998)

Edited by

György Barabás

László Fésüs

Miklós Györffi

University Medical School of Debrecen
Member of the Federation of Debrecen Universitas

1999

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Nicholas Bodor: Retrometabolic Concepts for the Design of Safer Drugs	3
Amnon Carmi: Health Legislation: Cultural Aspects	27
Jean-Marie Ghuysen: Antibacterial Chemotherapy Seventy Years after Fleming	33
Heikki J. Helminen: The Secret Of Osteoarthritis: Are We Asking the Right Questions?	49
Tadashi Hirano: Fine Structure of the Yeast Cell Envelope by a New High-Resolution Replica Method	63
Martin McKee: The Health Effects of the Political and Economic Transition in Central and Eastern Europe	83
Guido E. Nussbaumer: Medical Schools and the Pharmaceutical Industry	96
Stephen Oroszlan: Uncovering Secrets of Retroviruses by Molecular Studies and Their Impact of Cell Biology and Antiviral Therapy	115
Gerd Schmitz: Multiparametric Cell Analysis: From Phenotype to Function	143