

Contents

CONTRIBUTORS	viii
Message from the Prime Minister RT HON TONY BLAIR MP	xi
Acknowledgement	xii
Sponsors	xiii
Scope and purpose of the meeting ANN DAWSON MD	xv
OPENING SESSION
Welcoming Addresses	1
Can we turn the table on depression? JO ERIK ASVALL MD	3
Player and payer: the role of health insurers in improving healthcare provision for people with depression TOM SACKVILLE	9
A global view of depression from an anthropological perspective ARTHUR KLEINMAN MD ALEX COHEN PHD	11
Opening Address	17
Unipolar postnatal depression – at what cost? JOHN COX MD	19
SETTING THE SCENE
Overview	23
Historical review of diagnosis and treatment of depression EDWARD SHORTER PHD	25

Fifty years of depression DAVID HEALY MD	45
Depression and the elderly DAVID AMES MD	49
Somatisation and depression STEVEN REID MD SIMON WESSELY MD	55
Male depression: stress and aggression as pathways to major depression PER BECH MD	63
Improving the recognition and monitoring of depressive conditions: implications for suicide prevention WOLFGANG RUTZ MD	67

DEPRESSION AND GENERAL PRACTICE

Overview	75
Depression and general practice SIR DENIS PEREIRA GRAY OBE MD	77
*Management of depression in primary care ANDRE TYLEE MD	85
*National Service Framework for Mental Health ANDRE TYLEE MD ANN DAWSON MD	93
Treatment of depression in a managed care setting PETER JUHN PhD	97
Depression – a patient's view of the future RICHARD HORNSBY	103

DEPRESSION AND THE WORKPLACE

Overview	111
Health risk management of depression in the United Kingdom workplace KEVIN HOLLAND-ELLIOTT MD, Barrister	113

*Note: these sections were not part of the proceedings

ECONOMIC AND SOCIETAL CONSEQUENCES

Overview	119
The economic consequences of depression DANIEL CHISHOLM MSc	121
Reducing the costs of depression: opportunities in the millennium ERNST R BERNDT PhD	131
Economics of antidepressant pharmacotherapy: why SSRIs represent value for money DAVID ALEXANDER SCLAR PhD	143
Antidepressant use in primary care JOHN DONOGHUE BSc MRPharmS	151

THE DEBATE

The motion	157
'This House believes that the new generation antidepressants are the most effective first-line treatment for depression.'

Debate chairman's opening remarks

Chairman	DAVID HEALY MD	157
Debaters
For the motion	JOHN DONOGHUE BSc MRPharmS YVES LECRUBIER MD	158 164
Against the motion	JOHN GEDDES MD ALLAN HOUSE MD	169 173

Debate chairman's concluding remarks 176CLOSING REMARKS OF THE MEETING 177

KIRSTEN STAEHR JOHANSEN MD

Index 178