First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a top staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and two lower staves with bass clefs. The top staff contains a melodic line with various ornaments and slurs. The two lower staves contain a complex accompaniment with many sixteenth notes and slurs. A dynamic marking 'p' is present in the lower right of the system.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a top staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and two lower staves with bass clefs. The top staff continues the melodic line. The two lower staves continue the accompaniment. A dynamic marking 'p' is present in the lower right of the system.

Third system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a top staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and two lower staves with bass clefs. The top staff continues the melodic line. The two lower staves continue the accompaniment. A dynamic marking 'p' is present in the lower right of the system.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a top staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and two lower staves with bass clefs. The top staff continues the melodic line. The two lower staves continue the accompaniment. A dynamic marking 'p' is present in the lower right of the system.

Fifth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a top staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), and two lower staves with bass clefs. The top staff continues the melodic line. The two lower staves continue the accompaniment. Dynamic markings 'p' and 'dim.' are present. The system ends with a double bar line and a fermata.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a single bass staff at the top, a grand staff (treble and bass) in the middle, and a single bass staff at the bottom. The music features a melodic line in the top bass staff and a complex accompaniment in the grand staff. A dynamic marking 'p' is present in the bottom staff.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar instrumentation and melodic development.

Third system of musical notation, showing further melodic and harmonic progression.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a more active bass line in the grand staff and a dynamic marking 'p'.

Fifth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It includes a grand staff and a single bass staff. Dynamic markings 'dim.' and 'pp' are used. The system concludes with a double bar line and repeat signs.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a single bass staff at the top, a grand staff (treble and bass) in the middle, and another single bass staff at the bottom. The music is in a key with one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The top staff begins with a dynamic marking of f. The middle and bottom staves have a decrease. marking. The system concludes with a dim. marking.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It features the same three-staff layout. The music continues with various rhythmic patterns and chordal textures. A p (piano) dynamic marking is present in the bottom staff.

Third system of musical notation. The notation remains consistent with the previous systems. The piece continues to develop with more complex harmonic structures.

Fourth system of musical notation. This system introduces a new staff at the top, which is a treble clef staff. The grand staff below it now consists of a treble and a bass staff. The word Ped. (pedal) is written below the grand staff in four places, each followed by a star symbol (*).

Fifth and final system of musical notation. It features the same four-staff layout. The music concludes with a decrease. marking in the top staff and a decrease. marking in the grand staff. The system ends with a double bar line.
