Violoncello.

PIANO.

The first system of music features a piano accompaniment on the left and a soprano line on the right. The piano part begins with a series of chords in the left hand and a melodic line in the right hand. The soprano line starts with a melodic phrase. Both parts include a ritard. marking. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The second system continues the musical piece. The piano accompaniment maintains its harmonic and melodic structure. The soprano line has a melodic phrase with a fermata. A ritard. marking is present in the piano part. The system ends with a double bar line.

The third system shows further development of the piano accompaniment and the soprano line. The piano part includes a ritard. marking. The soprano line features a melodic phrase with a fermata. The system concludes with a double bar line.

The fourth system is the final one on the page. It includes a ritard. marking in the piano part and a p (piano) dynamic marking in the soprano line. The system concludes with a double bar line.
