

DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVES ON CANADA
FROM INSIDE AND OUTSIDE:
MULTIDISCIPLINARY APPROACHES

---

Edited by JUDIT MOLNÁR

Debrecen, 2008

Table of Contents

Introduction..... 7

I.

DIVERSE VOICES FROM THE LITERARY SCENE

WILLIAM H. NEW

Telling the Distances: Notes on Canadian
Prose Practice, towards the Post-Modern ..... 11

BARBARA GABRIEL

“The Collapsed Horizon of Events”: Mavid Gallant’s
The Pignitz Junction and the Ethics of Historical Memory.... 36

MARTIN KUESTER

Blake, Metaphor, and Metonymy in Margaret Atwood’s
Pluralities ..... 63

DANIEL SCHAUB

“enough to see by”: A Hegelian Discussion of Childhood
Drama in Margaret Atwood’s Cat’s Eye ..... 78

DAVID SOLWAY

Reflections on Quebec and L’Affaires Richler..... 93

CHRISTL VERDUYN

Canadian Women Writers as Essayists: The Examples of Aritha van Herk and Di Brant ..... 107

KATALIN KÜRTÖSI

North-American Metadrama ..... 120

II.

IDIOSYNCRACIES OF THE HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL SCENES

DESMOND MORTON
Reflecting What They Defended: The Canadian Forces and Twentieth Century Canadian Society .....	137
GLADYS SYMONS
Metaphor and Emotion: Deconstructing Affective Spacetime in Canadian Organizations .....	154
CHRISTIAN V. HANSEL
Links between Worlds—Communication in the Irish Migration to Central Canada in the Early 19th Century.....	174
GABRIELLA T. ESPÁK
Why Meech Lake Failed—Constitutional Notes to the Identity Debate .....	210
Contributors .....	257

9397

This collection of essays brings together internationally acknowledged scholars from different parts of the world. They shed light on the complex nature of Canadian culture in an idiosyncratic way. The authors approach the second largest country in the world from different aspects. They focus on the country's literature, history, politics, and its social fabric. The volume is an important contribution to understanding Canada.

