

CONTENTS

Acknowledgement

Foreword 1

[1] Notes on Form and Style 4

Introduction 5

[1] The Project 5

[2] General Methodology 6

[3] The Premise 10

[4] Structure of the Present Inquiry 11

[5] The Relevant Terminology 14

Chapter I

Theoretical Backgrounds 19

[1] Overview 19

[2] Minstrelsy Studies 19

[3] Theater and Drama Semiotics 23

(A) "Hunt for the Sign" 26

(B) Typologies of Theatrical Signs 30

[4] Semiotization of the Minstrel Theater 34

(A) The Problem of Naming 37

(B) Terminological Alternatives 39

(C) Defining the Minstrel Sign 40

[5] Classification of the Minstrel Sign: A Proposed Model 43

Chapter II

The Semiotic System of Minstrelsy 47

[1] Structural Signs 48

(A) The Street Parade 48

(B) The Semicircular Stage Format 50

(C) The Tripartite Arrangement 50

[2] Literary and Generic Minstrel Signs 53

(A) Minstrel Songs 54

(B) The Stump Speech 57

(C) Minstrel Jokes: Puns and Conundrums 59

(D) Dance 62

[3] Aesthetic Minstrel Signs 66

(A) The Minstrel Mimicry 66

(B) The Minstrel Grotesque 69

1. Grotesque Elements in Minstrel Props 70

2. Grotesque Minstrel Scenarios	71
3. The Ideological Sources of Minstrelsy's Lopsided World View	74
(a) Ambivalence or Joyful Relativity	75
(b) Liminality	76
(c) Utopia	76
(d) Scandal	77
(e) Parody	78
(C) Minstrel Character Clichés and Stereotypes	79
[4] Linguistic Markers as Minstrel Signs	86
(A) The Minstrel Dialect	86
(B) Malapropism	89
(C) Homonyms and Homophones	90
[5] Bodily or Physical Minstrel Signs	90
(A) The Mask	92
(B) The Minstrel's Attire	96
(C) Physical Features	98
(D) Minstrel Cross-Dressing; or, the Wench Role	99

Chapter III

The Commodification of the Minstrel Sign 102

[1] The Institution	104
[2] Strategies and Ideologies of Racial Objectification	109
(A) Aspects of Human Objectification	109
(B) The Cultural Forces Behind Minstrelsy: Ideologies of Belonging	112
(C) The Politics of Liminality	116
(D) Practices of Racial Objectification: Ideologies of Not Belonging (I)	119
(E) The America Versus Europe Syndrome: Ideologies of Not Belonging (II)	126
[3] Marketing the Product	129
(A) Originality and Authenticity: Products and Marketing Strategies	130
(B) Additional Rhetorical Strategies	133
(C) Promotional Strategies	135

Chapter IV

The Minstrel Heritage as a Formative Influence in 19th-Century American Literature 138

[1] Harriet Beecher Stowe: The Contradiction of Conflicting Discourses	141
[2] The Case of Herman Melville: Subverting the Minstrel Heritage	151
(A) The Minstrel Sign Revisited: A Reading of Herman Melville's "Benito Cereno"	151
(B) The Confidence-Man: His Masquerade —A Rereading of Chapter 3	159
[3] The Adventures of the Minstrel Sign in Mark Twain's Huckleberry Finn	170

Chapter V

Extensions of the Minstrel Sign in 20th-Century Literary Texts 184

I. Minstrel Signs as Substantive Compositional Features	185
---	-----

[1] Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man : A Satire on Masks	185
(A) The Hero as Minstrel Man	186
(B) Versions of Masks and Masking	187
1. Blackface Masking	187
2. The Darky Act	190
3. Masks of the American Absurd	192
(C) Minstrel Paraphernalia	194
(D) Minstrel Stereotypes	197
[2] John Berryman and the Minstrel Tradition	198
[3] Signifying Practices in Ntozake Shange's spell# 7	204
(A) Minstrel Signification	205
(B) Authorial/Textual Strategies of Rebellion	207
1. Subversion	207
2. Undoing	208
3. Rewriting, De-spelling	210
(C) Blacks and the Blackface Tradition: A Dubious Alliance	211

II. Sporadic Literary Minstrel References	211
---	-----

[1] Sporadic Minstrel Signification from the Pre-1945 Period	213
[2] Fragmentary Minstrel References from the Post-1945 Period	219

VI. Afterword: The Translatability of Cultures	225
---	------------

Works Cited	230
--------------------	------------

Appendix

- Figure I: The semicircular stage format
Figure II: Grotesque illustration of the Virginia Minstrels
Figure III: The blackface grin