

Tamás Bényei

Acts of Attention

Figure and Narrative
in Postwar British Novels

PETER LANG
Europäischer Verlag der Wissenschaften

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	9
“A LANDSCAPE WITHOUT FIGURES”: THE TROPES OF REMEMBERING IN BRIDESHEAD REVISITED ”	15
Nostalgia and Narrative	15
Love Story	23
The Garden as Origin	26
The Main Charm of Marchmain	31
The Fountain	34
The Garden of Julia	38
The Garden of Sebastian	41
The Ages of Man	48
Remembering as Building Ruins	54
SEDUCTION AND THE POLITICS OF READING IN THE FRENCH LIEUTENANT’S WOMAN	65
Victorian Mimicry and the Parables of Authority	69
Narrative Seduction	77
Confession	83
TROPICS: FIGURE AND NARRATIVE IN WILLIAM GOLDING’S SEA TRILOGY	93
Gone Home	94
Shooting the Sun	100

Luminaries	108
Dictionary	123
Translations	133
The Art of Sinking	140
Faces	145
The Meaning of the Tale	157
RISKING THE TEXT: STORIES OF LOVE IN JEANETTE WINTERSON'S THE PASSION	171
Storytelling and Gambling	171
Two Desires	179
THROUGH A GLASS, DARKLY: PLACES OF BETWEEN-NESS IN IAN McEWAN'S THE INNOCENT	187
Two Stories: Places of Reading	187
Two Stories: Concealment and Violation	189
Two Stories: Echoes	195
Violence and the Face	199
Through a Glass	206
The Moment Between or the Quiet Englishman	209
The Place Between	220
WORKS CITED	225