

THE NEW POLITICAL ECONOMY OF EMERGING EUROPE

Second, revised and extended edition

By

László CSABA

AKADÉMIAI KIADÓ, BUDAPEST

CONTENTS

1. FOREWORD TO THE SECOND, REVISED AND EXTENDED EDITION.....	11
2. FOREWORD – WHY THIS BOOK?	17
Preliminaries and Background	17
What Is New Political Economy?.....	19
Why Not Eastern Europe/Transition Economies?	25
The Map of the Project.....	27
References	29
3. A COMPARATIVE OVERVIEW OF EMPIRICAL EVIDENCE	32
On Catching up.....	33
Production and Performance of the Transforming Economies	35
Summary View	42
Utilization of Gross Domestic Product.....	44
The Social Side of Transformation: Inflation and Unemployment	47
External Trade and Finance.....	55
Trade – Exports	56
Import Markets: Potential or Problem-Field?	58
External Finance	61
Foreign Direct Investment – Do We Possess a Key?	64
Some Preliminary Conclusions from Empirical Evidence	68
References	70
4. THE DEVELOPMENTAL DIMENSION OF POST-COMMUNIST CHANGE	88
The Thorny Path to Growth.....	89
Emerging Economies or Developing Societies?.....	97
Varietas delectat?	104
References	105

5. TRANSNATIONAL MARKETS AND LOCAL POLITICS – THE POST-COMMUNIST DIMENSION	109
State Desertion, State Failure or Subversive Globalization?	109
Policies and Erosion in Emerging Economies: What Is the Nexus?	113
The Experience of Frontrunners	117
The Same Seen from the Angle of the Mouse: Laggards in Transition ...	123
The New Economy – a Defining Feature of 21 st Century Development	129
On the Co-Evolution of the State and Market	132
References	135
6. ‘GLOBALIZATION’ AND ‘EUROPEANIZATION’: A DOUBLE CHALLENGE FOR EMERGING EUROPE	139
Global Challenges – Transnational Processes.....	140
‘Europeanization’ as a Special Challenge	148
New Members: The Challenge of Third Wave of Transformation.....	152
On Social Stress: No Pain, No Gain?	157
References	160
7. LIMITS TO ACCESSION-DRIVEN TRANSFORMATION IN CENTRAL EUROPE	164
Transition and EU Integration: Do They Fully Overlap?	164
European Governance in Global Perspective.....	168
European Standardization and Developmental Tasks.....	173
Europeanization: Is There a Move to a Single Standard Solution?.....	177
Toward Multi-Level Governance – By Default?	179
References	181
8. A NON-STABILITY AND ANTI-GROWTH PACT FOR EUROPE?	184
What Is at Stake?	184
The Stability and Growth Pact and the Single Currency	186
The Stability and Growth Pact and the New EU Members	193
The Gradual Adoption of the Euro?	200
Conclusions.....	208
References	210
9. RE-INTERPRETING RULES-BASED BEHAVIOUR IN EUROPE	214
Rules-Based Fiscal Policy in the European Union	215
Initiatives to ‘Patch Up the Pact’	220
Re-Interpretation of the Pact.....	225
Perspectives of the New EU Member-States	228
Theory and Practice	233
References	235

10. POST-CRISIS PERSPECTIVES ON THE FUTURE OF THE EU.....	242
Three Overlapping Crises and Enlargement	244
Taking Stock and Looking Ahead	247
Do New Members Really Form a Coalition of the Nasty?.....	251
The Potential for Institutional Innovation and Further Enlargement.....	254
References	257
11. RUSSIAN TRANSFORMATION: FROM STATE FAILURE TO MARKET FAILURE?	259
Russian Economic Change: A Bird’s Eye View	260
The Russian Market Order: The Wild East and/or State Capitalism?	267
How Can We Test If Russia Is Indeed a Market Economy?.....	274
What Matters for Growth? Prospects for the Russian Economy.....	279
References	285
12. MARKET SOCIALISM: THE VIABLE IMPOSSIBLE?	298
China – A Challenge to the Post-Washington Consensus	299
Why Marketize Socialism? Salient Features of the Classical Model.....	302
Salient Features of the Soviet Model: Poetry and Reality	302
Reform Socialist Models	310
Bukharin’s New Economic Policy	310
The Yugoslav Model: Decentralization and Self-Management	315
The Hungarian Alternative – The New Economic Mechanism	319
The Chinese Model	322
Is China a Developmental Alternative?	326
Concluding Remarks.....	337
References	339
13. PRIVATIZATION, REGULATION AND REGULATED MARKETS.....	345
Privatization, Regulation and Efficiency.....	345
Private Property and Multi-Level Governance.....	349
Interrelationships between Welfare and Financial Sector Reforms	353
Regulatory Regimes: The Case for Transnational Solutions	357
The European Dimension	362
References	366
14. INSTITUTIONS AND GROWTH: WHAT IS THE NEXUS?.....	368
Endowments, Policies and Culture.....	369
Formalization and Enforcement	373
Policies and Transnationalization	375

The Politics of Economic Reform	378
The Role of Financial Institutions	380
Self-Correction and Coordination in Complex Systems	385
Rules, Ideas and Policy Discretion	388
The Democratic Development Alternative	390
References	393
15. SUBJECT INDEX.....	397